Sone

Sone is a unicoloured upholstery textile featuring a subtle graphic design with intersecting fields of linear textures. It is part of a textile collection with Alle and Tero Outdoor that interprets Ronan Bouroullec's iconic drawings.

The contrast of the different multidirectional pattern play across Sone's surface, and which gives a pronounced tactility and depth, with the structure of the pattern emerging from changes in the direction of the lines.

In this way, Sone captures the sense of the textural zones and movement that represents Ronan Bouroullec's artworks. The expression of the textile takes further inspiration from landscapes, as if looking down on fields from plane flying above.

Ronan Bouroullec: "The journey that led us to Sone, Tero Outdoor and Alle started with a simple question. How can we translate the essence of the drawings into textiles?"

The colour palette for Sone unites a scale of bright hues with notes of vibrant green and yellow to the softer brick-tones. These are characterised in Ronan Bouroullec's celebrated drawings and coordinated with the other textiles in the collection.

Sone is suitable for a wide range of commercial and residential applications.

Ronan Bouroullec

Ronan Bouroullec is a globally acclaimed talent and long-term collaborator with Kvadrat. Trained in contemporary art and design, he creates works that span from craftsmanship to mass production via permanent public space installations worldwide.

In the early 1990s Ronan Bouroullec started his design activities and has since then worked with a roster of leading design brands from his studio in Paris. Drawing, a regular activity since childhood, also plays a central part in his life. His designs, some of which he co-creates with his brother Erwan Bouroullec, and intuitive drawings play a role in prestigious international institutions and galleries.
