Alle

Alle is a soft woollen upholstery featuring an organic line pattern. It is part of a textile collection together with Sone and Tero Outdoor, exploring interpretations of Ronan Bouroullec's intuitive artworks.

The textile's pattern features yarns that stretches from selvedge to selvedge, which flow across and seemingly dissolve into its surface. These tactile, three-dimensional forms capture a sense of the rich strokes that characterise Ronan Bouroullec's drawings and illuminate a vibrant interplay between matt and lustre.

Ronan Bouroullec: "Alle offers an atmospheric translation of the pen strokes and colours that comprise my artworks. Through the prism of rich materiality, it expresses the therapeutic back-and-forth movements I make when drawing."

The colour palette for Alle comprises a scale of mainly cool, neutral and brick-coloured notes. The contrast in relief between the flat base and the raised 'brushstrokes' reveals different sides to these elegant shades.

Alle is suitable for a wide range of commercial and residential applications.

Ronan Bouroullec

Ronan Bouroullec is a globally acclaimed talent and long-term collaborator with Kvadrat. Trained in contemporary art and design, he creates works that span from craftsmanship to mass production via permanent public space installations worldwide.

In the early 1990s Ronan Bouroullec started his design activities and has since then worked with a roster of leading design brands from his studio in Paris. Drawing, a regular activity since childhood, also plays a central part in his life. His designs, some of which he co-creates with his brother Erwan Bouroullec, and intuitive drawings play a role in prestigious international institutions and galleries.

Kvadrat
